Quando eu perdi meus pais para os humanos, Nori estava lá para me consolar, ela me tratou como uma filha, por mais que Uzi já estivesse ali, e sinto como se ela realmente fosse minha mãe...

Quando eu recebi a notícia de que Khan tinha morrido para o que era até então, o N, Uzi e Nori ficaram em choque, e eu também fiquei... Afinal, ele não era ruim..

N então atacou a Uzi, a Alice e o Beau, na mesma noite, foi um terror, fiquei cerca de uma semana trancada no meu quarto, apenas com a Cyn lá, protegendo ela, quando eu decidi sair e consegui soltar a V...

Faz dois dias desde que soltei a V, e esta noite, me encontrei com Nori, ela estava infectada também, mas mesmo destruída, ela ainda está consciente, e sorriu pra mim...

Eu prometo que vou achar a cura para isso, nem que eu tenha que me sacrificar, eu vou salvar minha colônia, não merecemos isso!

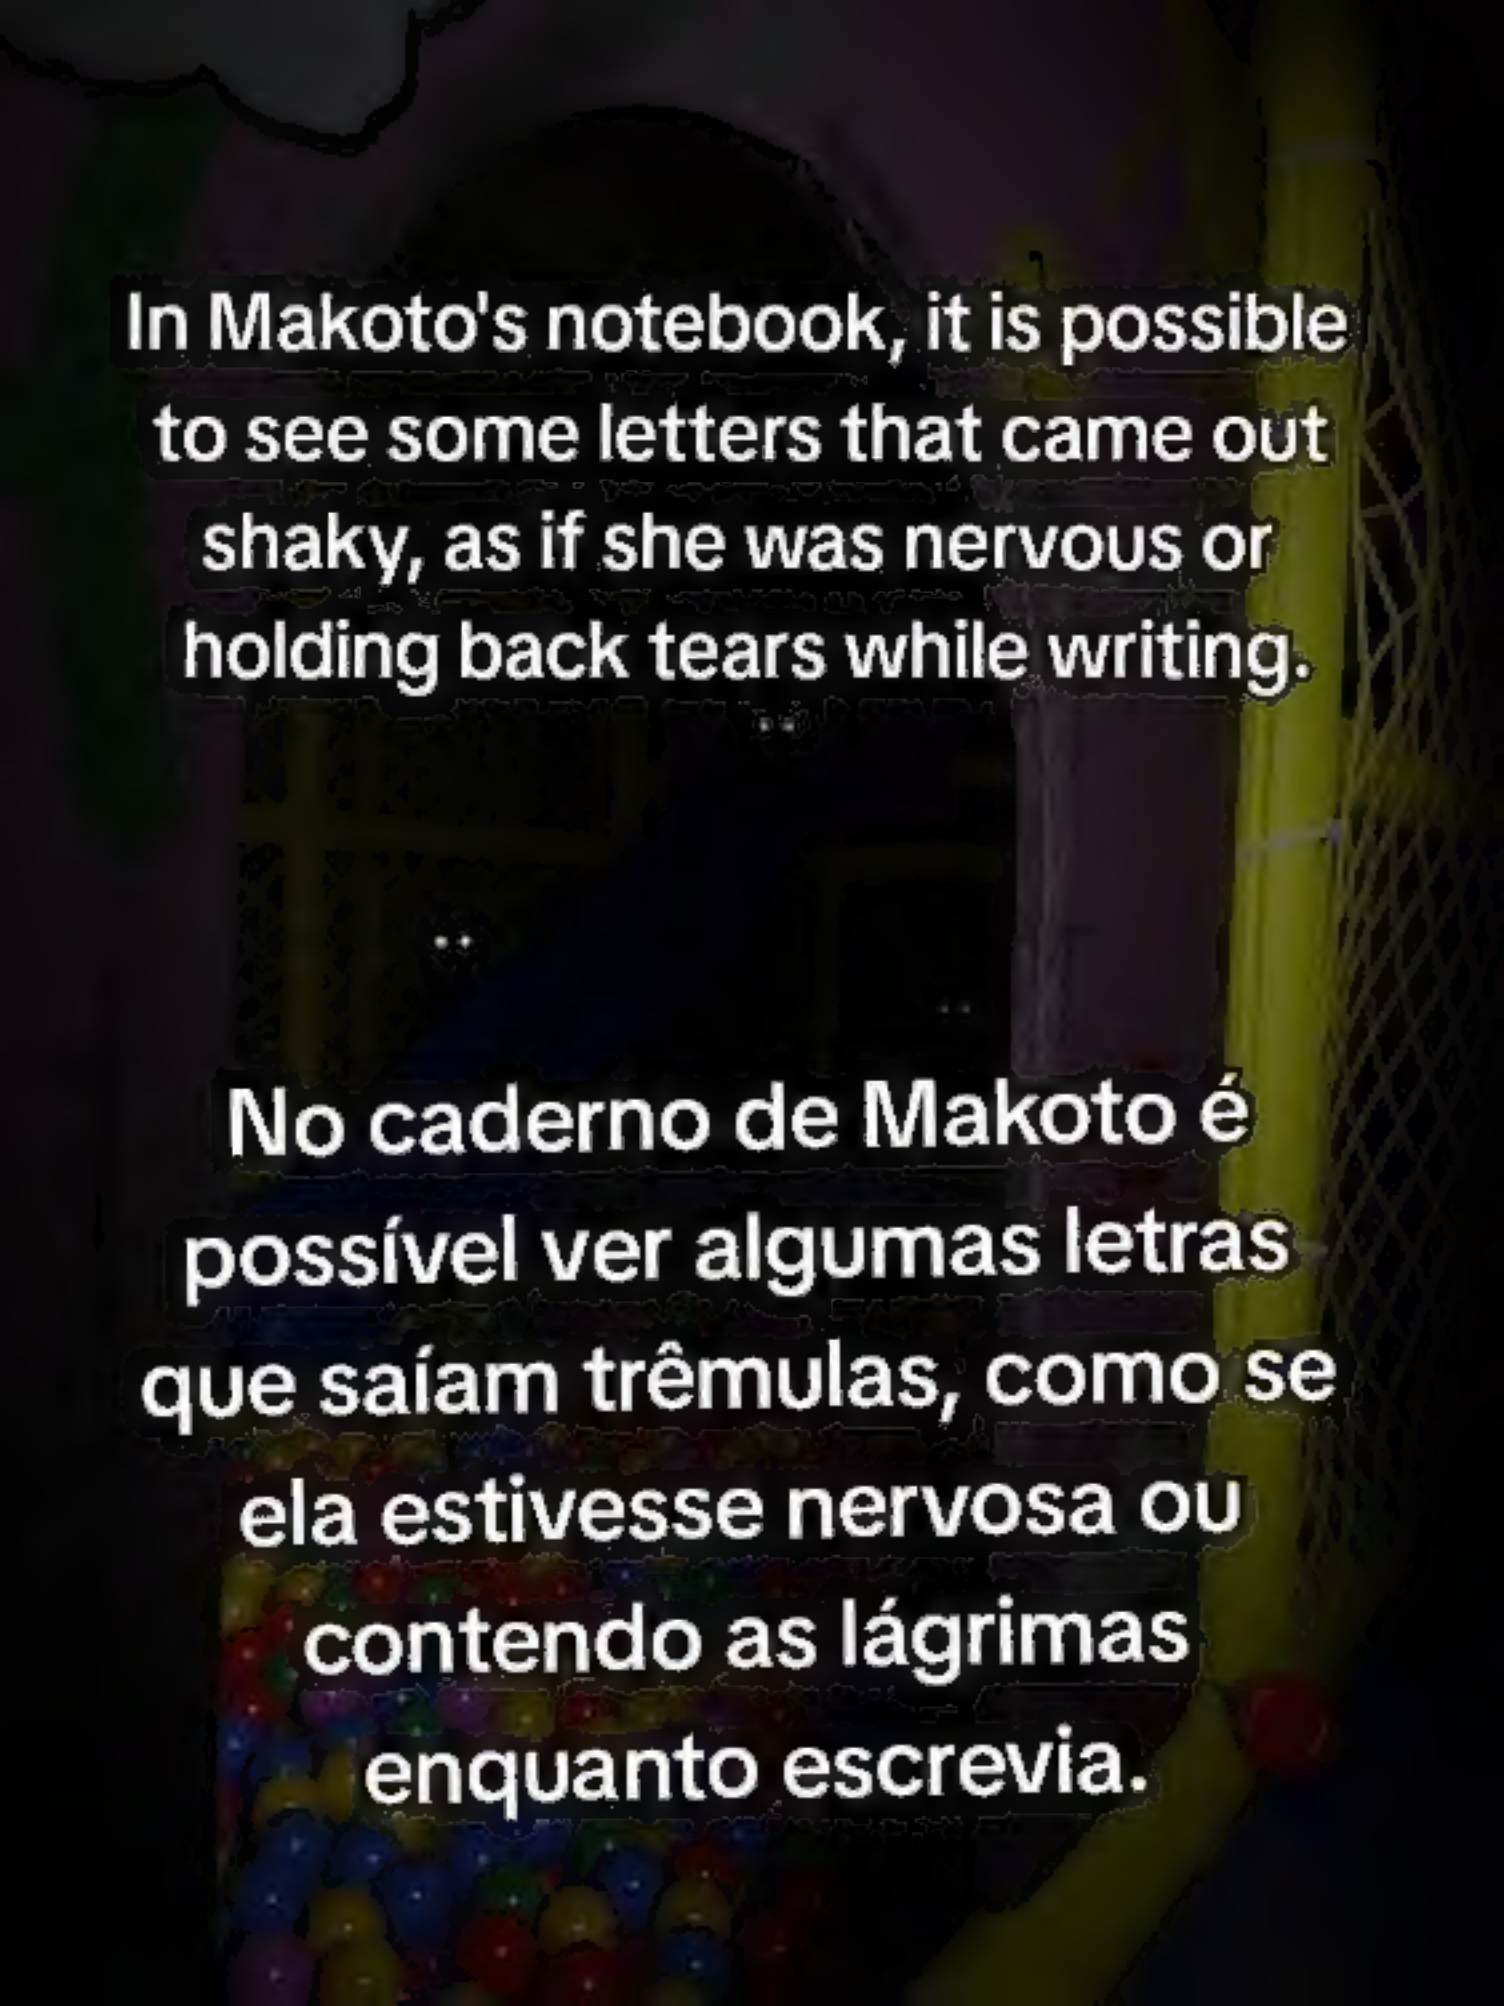
When I lost my parents to humans, Nori was there to comfort me, she treated me like a daughter, even though Uzi was already there, and I feel like she really was my mother...

When I received the news that Khan had died for what it was until then, N, Uzi and Nori were in shock, and I was too... After all, he wasn't bad...

N then attacked Uzi, Alice and Beau, on the same night, it was terrifying, I spent about a week locked in my room, with only Cyn there, protecting her, when I decided to leave and managed to free V

It's been two days since I released V, and tonight, I met with Nori, she was infected too, but even though she was destroyed, she is still conscious, and she smiled at me...

I promise I will find a cure for this, even if I have to sacrifice myself, I will save my colony, we don't deserve this!



In Makoto's notebook, it is possible to see some letters that came out shaky, as if she was nervous or holding back tears while writing.
No caderno de Makoto é possível ver algumas letras que saíam trêmulas, como se ela estivesse nervosa ou contendo as lágrimas enquanto escrevia.
